Franklin County Saddle Club

About Sarah : Sarah Lawrence is an enthusiastic entrepreneur and professional rider with a focus on developing high-performance horses. European-trained in classical dressage, she brings a unique foundation to her work in eventing, show jumping, and dressage. Sarah originally started her career in Washington state before relocating to Tryon, NC to further pursue her equestrian ambitions.

Sarah has successfully operated a high-performance training and sales program, producing top-level event and show jumping horses. She also has experience developing hunters and working with other professionals to prepare horses for the 1.40m level for both show and sale.

Beyond her professional career, Sarah is passionate about giving back to the sport. She founded an Interscholastic Eventing League in Tryon, NC, where she coaches a team of young riders (grades 5-12), helping them develop a path in eventing. More info: slawrenceequestrian.com
